JUDGES 6:33-7:25

The people of Israel again did what was evil in the sight of the Lord. God allowed them to be oppressed by the Midianites, the Amalekites, and other tribes from the east, who viciously raided their land, their livestock, and their crops. They cried out to God and He met them with His Word and then His worker. Israel's problem was that they turned from God to worship idols so God was going to make sure He received the glory for their deliverance and that it could only be attributed to Him. His man seemed completely fearful and unqualified for the task, but the Lord has a way of using the least likely to accomplish His work. In our passage today, what do we learn about God showing His strength in our weakness?

2. God _____ whoever He calls is a _____. He is never in _____.
3. God's _____ is trustworthy regardless of how it may seem to our _____.
4. God, not Gideon (or us), is the _____ of every _____. (McMath)
