THINGS TO COME | ONLY HE IS WORTHY REVELATION 5:1-7

We gained a glimpse of heaven in chapter four of Revelation. We saw God in His glory, angels worshipping Him, and presumably His church bowing down and casting their crowns before Him. Those who have called Chapter Four the Hymn of Creation now call Chapter Five the Hymn of Redemption. John is in despair because there is no one who can open the scroll of redemption. John's attention is then directed to the One who can- the Lion & the Lamb. What does this chapter teach us about Jesus, redemption, and the things to come?

What does this chapter teach us about Jesus, redemption, and the things to come?
1.	The only one who is worthy to and this world is the Lord Jesus Christ.
2.	Jesus is worthy because His deity and humanity satisfied the requirements necessary to provide for the believer and of this fallen world.
3.	Jesus is the worthy who will take all that is God's from the dominion of and
