

THINGS TO COME | WAR IN HEAVEN
REVELATION 12:1-17

Our infatuation with materialism has led us to deny or ignore anything that we cannot see. However, there is a very real war waging. The Apostle Paul tells us it is not a battle against flesh and blood, but one in spiritual realms where spiritual forces oppose one another. We are deeply affected by this battle even though it is occurring in spiritual realms. We see a pattern as God blesses and uses His people. Next, Satan attacks God's people and tries to thwart God's plan. Then, God preserves His people and delivers the victory. Romans 12 provides a panoramic view of the past, the future already exposed in Revelation, and a view of the remainder of the book. Who are those mentioned in this chapter and what does it indicate about the future?

1. Although the woman in chapter twelve alludes to _____, she is identified as _____ collectively. Revelation 12:1-2, Matthew 2:13-18, Genesis 37:9-10

2. The great red dragon represents _____ and His influence on _____ and national _____.
Revelation 12:3-4,9, 20:2, Daniel 7:7-8, 24

3. The child alludes to the Lord Jesus Christ and very likely His _____. Revelation 12:5, Matthew 2:13-18, Psalm 2:9, Isaiah 66:8-9, Revelation 2:26-28

4. The fleeing of the woman represents both the _____ and _____ will face in the Tribulation. Revelation 12:6, 13-17

THINGS TO COME | WAR IN HEAVEN
REVELATION 12:1-17

Our infatuation with materialism has led us to deny or ignore anything that we cannot see. However, there is a very real war waging. The Apostle Paul tells us it is not a battle against flesh and blood, but one in spiritual realms where spiritual forces oppose one another. We are deeply affected by this battle even though it is occurring in spiritual realms. We see a pattern as God blesses and uses His people. Next, Satan attacks God's people and tries to thwart God's plan. Then, God preserves His people and delivers the victory. Romans 12 provides a panoramic view of the past, the future already exposed in Revelation, and a view of the remainder of the book. Who are those mentioned in this chapter and what does it indicate about the future?

1. Although the woman in chapter twelve alludes to _____, she is identified as _____ collectively. Revelation 12:1-2, Matthew 2:13-18, Genesis 37:9-10
2. The great red dragon represents _____ and His influence on _____ and national _____.
