REVELATION 14:1-20

It is common for TV programs to begin with clips of previous scenes and highlights of the upcoming episodes. In some ways, Revelation 12-14 serves the same purpose. This section prepares the way for the climax of the book beginning in chapter fifteen. In chapter twelve we're introduced to characters and the stage is set. In chapter thirteen, we meet the wicked rulers of the unholy, counterfeit trinity. In chapter fourteen, now we see the victory and judgment of Christ. These chapters serve to give hope to suffering churches throughout the ages, by declaring God's victory and judgment of their persecutors. They also serve as a reminder that today is the day to be saved by God from His judgement. What can we expect in the remainder of Revelation as a result of Revelation 14?

1. Christ will stand _____ on Mount Zion with the _____ of Israel. 14:1-6
2. God will _____ the wicked, _____ the world system, _____ the Antichrist and his worshippers, and _____ those who trust and follow Christ. 14:7-13
3. God's judgment will be _____ and _____; however, grace is _____ for those who turn to Him _____. 14:14-20
