

THINGS TO COME | THE FINAL JUDGMENTS INTRODUCED

REVELATION 15:1-8

In Paul's letter to the Romans, he tells them to live peaceably with all. Then he writes this: "Beloved, never avenge yourselves, but leave it to the wrath of God, for it is written, "Vengeance is mine, I will repay, says the Lord." (12:19, ESV) Paul was quoting Deuteronomy 32:35 from the Greek translation of the Old Testament called the Septuagint. It's from a passage of scripture called the Song of Moses. It speaks to God's perfection and justice and His right to judge. In Revelation 15, John records a scene seen in heaven. God's judgment is about to be poured out. The lights are about to go out on those who disregard the sovereignty and holiness of God. As this is about to happen there is a scene in heaven of people worshiping God and singing the Song of Moses and the song of the Lamb. What can we understand from this scene in heaven?

1. The time will come where God in His perfect justice and holiness will pour out judgment on those who have rejected Him and attacked His people.
2. Those who have trusted in Christ regardless of the difficulty of their time on earth will be worshipful conquerors in heaven.
3. When the seven angels leave the sanctuary, it is just a matter of time until the anger of God is poured out upon the earth.

THINGS TO COME | THE FINAL JUDGMENTS INTRODUCED

REVELATION 15:1-8

In Paul's letter to the Romans, he tells them to live peaceably with all. Then he writes this: "Beloved, never avenge yourselves, but leave it to the wrath of God, for it is written, "Vengeance is mine, I will repay, says the Lord." (12:19, ESV) Paul was quoting Deuteronomy 32:35 from the Greek translation of the Old Testament called the Septuagint. It's from a passage of scripture called the Song of Moses. It speaks to God's perfection and justice and His right to judge. In Revelation 15, John records a scene seen in heaven. God's judgment is about to be poured out. The lights are about to go out on those who disregard the sovereignty and holiness of God. As this is about to happen there is a scene in heaven of people worshiping God and singing the Song of Moses and the song of the Lamb. What can we understand from this scene in heaven?

1. The time will come where God in His perfect justice and holiness will pour out judgment on those who have rejected Him and attacked His people.
2. Those who have trusted in Christ regardless of the difficulty of their time on earth will be worshipful conquerors in heaven.
3. When the seven angels leave the sanctuary, it is just a matter of time until the anger of God is poured out upon the earth.

THINGS TO COME | THE FINAL JUDGMENTS INTRODUCED

REVELATION 15:1-8

In Paul's letter to the Romans, he tells them to live peaceably with all. Then he writes this: "Beloved, never avenge yourselves, but leave it to the wrath of God, for it is written, "Vengeance is mine, I will repay, says the Lord." (12:19, ESV) Paul was quoting Deuteronomy 32:35 from the Greek translation of the Old Testament called the Septuagint. It's from a passage of scripture called the Song of Moses. It speaks to God's perfection and justice and His right to judge. In Revelation 15, John records a scene seen in heaven. God's judgment is about to be poured out. The lights are about to go out on those who disregard the sovereignty and holiness of God. As this is about to happen there is a scene in heaven of people worshiping God and singing the Song of Moses and the song of the Lamb. What can we understand from this scene in heaven?

1. The time will come where God in His perfect justice and holiness will pour out judgment on those who have rejected Him and attacked His people.
2. Those who have trusted in Christ regardless of the difficulty of their time on earth will be worshipful conquerors in heaven.
3. When the seven angels leave the sanctuary, it is just a matter of time until the anger of God is poured out upon the earth.

THINGS TO COME | THE FINAL JUDGMENTS INTRODUCED

REVELATION 15:1-8

In Paul's letter to the Romans, he tells them to live peaceably with all. Then he writes this: "Beloved, never avenge yourselves, but leave it to the wrath of God, for it is written, "Vengeance is mine, I will repay, says the Lord." (12:19, ESV) Paul was quoting Deuteronomy 32:35 from the Greek translation of the Old Testament called the Septuagint. It's from a passage of scripture called the Song of Moses. It speaks to God's perfection and justice and His right to judge. In Revelation 15, John records a scene seen in heaven. God's judgment is about to be poured out. The lights are about to go out on those who disregard the sovereignty and holiness of God. As this is about to happen there is a scene in heaven of people worshiping God and singing the Song of Moses and the song of the Lamb. What can we understand from this scene in heaven?

1. The time will come where God in His perfect justice and holiness will pour out judgment on those who have rejected Him and attacked His people.
2. Those who have trusted in Christ regardless of the difficulty of their time on earth will be worshipful conquerors in heaven.
3. When the seven angels leave the sanctuary, it is just a matter of time until the anger of God is poured out upon the earth.

THINGS TO COME | THE FINAL JUDGMENTS INTRODUCED

REVELATION 15:1-8

In Paul's letter to the Romans, he tells them to live peaceably with all. Then he writes this: "Beloved, never avenge yourselves, but leave it to the wrath of God, for it is written, "Vengeance is mine, I will repay, says the Lord." (12:19, ESV) Paul was quoting Deuteronomy 32:35 from the Greek translation of the Old Testament called the Septuagint. It's from a passage of scripture called the Song of Moses. It speaks to God's perfection and justice and His right to judge. In Revelation 15, John records a scene seen in heaven. God's judgment is about to be poured out. The lights are about to go out on those who disregard the sovereignty and holiness of God. As this is about to happen there is a scene in heaven of people worshiping God and singing the Song of Moses and the song of the Lamb. What can we understand from this scene in heaven?

1. The time will come where God in His perfect justice and holiness will pour out judgment on those who have rejected Him and attacked His people.
2. Those who have trusted in Christ regardless of the difficulty of their time on earth will be worshipful conquerors in heaven.
3. When the seven angels leave the sanctuary, it is just a matter of time until the anger of God is poured out upon the earth.

THINGS TO COME | THE FINAL JUDGMENTS INTRODUCED

REVELATION 15:1-8

In Paul's letter to the Romans, he tells them to live peaceably with all. Then he writes this: "Beloved, never avenge yourselves, but leave it to the wrath of God, for it is written, "Vengeance is mine, I will repay, says the Lord." (12:19, ESV) Paul was quoting Deuteronomy 32:35 from the Greek translation of the Old Testament called the Septuagint. It's from a passage of scripture called the Song of Moses. It speaks to God's perfection and justice and His right to judge. In Revelation 15, John records a scene seen in heaven. God's judgment is about to be poured out. The lights are about to go out on those who disregard the sovereignty and holiness of God. As this is about to happen there is a scene in heaven of people worshiping God and singing the Song of Moses and the song of the Lamb. What can we understand from this scene in heaven?

1. The time will come where God in His perfect justice and holiness will pour out judgment on those who have rejected Him and attacked His people.
2. Those who have trusted in Christ regardless of the difficulty of their time on earth will be worshipful conquerors in heaven.
3. When the seven angels leave the sanctuary, it is just a matter of time until the anger of God is poured out upon the earth.

THINGS TO COME | THE FINAL JUDGMENTS INTRODUCED

REVELATION 15:1-8

In Paul's letter to the Romans, he tells them to live peaceably with all. Then he writes this: "Beloved, never avenge yourselves, but leave it to the wrath of God, for it is written, "Vengeance is mine, I will repay, says the Lord." (12:19, ESV) Paul was quoting Deuteronomy 32:35 from the Greek translation of the Old Testament called the Septuagint. It's from a passage of scripture called the Song of Moses. It speaks to God's perfection and justice and His right to judge. In Revelation 15, John records a scene seen in heaven. God's judgment is about to be poured out. The lights are about to go out on those who disregard the sovereignty and holiness of God. As this is about to happen there is a scene in heaven of people worshiping God and singing the Song of Moses and the song of the Lamb. What can we understand from this scene in heaven?

1. The time will come where God in His perfect justice and holiness will pour out judgment on those who have rejected Him and attacked His people.
2. Those who have trusted in Christ regardless of the difficulty of their time on earth will be worshipful conquerors in heaven.
3. When the seven angels leave the sanctuary, it is just a matter of time until the anger of God is poured out upon the earth.

THINGS TO COME | THE FINAL JUDGMENTS INTRODUCED

REVELATION 15:1-8

In Paul's letter to the Romans, he tells them to live peaceably with all. Then he writes this: "Beloved, never avenge yourselves, but leave it to the wrath of God, for it is written, "Vengeance is mine, I will repay, says the Lord." (12:19, ESV) Paul was quoting Deuteronomy 32:35 from the Greek translation of the Old Testament called the Septuagint. It's from a passage of scripture called the Song of Moses. It speaks to God's perfection and justice and His right to judge. In Revelation 15, John records a scene seen in heaven. God's judgment is about to be poured out. The lights are about to go out on those who disregard the sovereignty and holiness of God. As this is about to happen there is a scene in heaven of people worshiping God and singing the Song of Moses and the song of the Lamb. What can we understand from this scene in heaven?

1. The time will come where God in His perfect justice and holiness will pour out judgment on those who have rejected Him and attacked His people.
2. Those who have trusted in Christ regardless of the difficulty of their time on earth will be worshipful conquerors in heaven.
3. When the seven angels leave the sanctuary, it is just a matter of time until the anger of God is poured out upon the earth.

THINGS TO COME | THE FINAL JUDGMENTS INTRODUCED

REVELATION 15:1-8

In Paul's letter to the Romans, he tells them to live peaceably with all. Then he writes this: "Beloved, never avenge yourselves, but leave it to the wrath of God, for it is written, "Vengeance is mine, I will repay, says the Lord." (12:19, ESV) Paul was quoting Deuteronomy 32:35 from the Greek translation of the Old Testament called the Septuagint. It's from a passage of scripture called the Song of Moses. It speaks to God's perfection and justice and His right to judge. In Revelation 15, John records a scene seen in heaven. God's judgment is about to be poured out. The lights are about to go out on those who disregard the sovereignty and holiness of God. As this is about to happen there is a scene in heaven of people worshiping God and singing the Song of Moses and the song of the Lamb. What can we understand from this scene in heaven?

1. The time will come where God in His perfect justice and holiness will pour out judgment on those who have rejected Him and attacked His people.
2. Those who have trusted in Christ regardless of the difficulty of their time on earth will be worshipful conquerors in heaven.
3. When the seven angels leave the sanctuary, it is just a matter of time until the anger of God is poured out upon the earth.

THINGS TO COME | THE FINAL JUDGMENTS INTRODUCED

REVELATION 15:1-8

In Paul's letter to the Romans, he tells them to live peaceably with all. Then he writes this: "Beloved, never avenge yourselves, but leave it to the wrath of God, for it is written, "Vengeance is mine, I will repay, says the Lord." (12:19, ESV) Paul was quoting Deuteronomy 32:35 from the Greek translation of the Old Testament called the Septuagint. It's from a passage of scripture called the Song of Moses. It speaks to God's perfection and justice and His right to judge. In Revelation 15, John records a scene seen in heaven. God's judgment is about to be poured out. The lights are about to go out on those who disregard the sovereignty and holiness of God. As this is about to happen there is a scene in heaven of people worshiping God and singing the Song of Moses and the song of the Lamb. What can we understand from this scene in heaven?

1. The time will come where God in His perfect justice and holiness will pour out judgment on those who have rejected Him and attacked His people.
2. Those who have trusted in Christ regardless of the difficulty of their time on earth will be worshipful conquerors in heaven.
3. When the seven angels leave the sanctuary, it is just a matter of time until the anger of God is poured out upon the earth.

THINGS TO COME | THE FINAL JUDGMENTS INTRODUCED

REVELATION 15:1-8

In Paul's letter to the Romans, he tells them to live peaceably with all. Then he writes this: "Beloved, never avenge yourselves, but leave it to the wrath of God, for it is written, "Vengeance is mine, I will repay, says the Lord." (12:19, ESV) Paul was quoting Deuteronomy 32:35 from the Greek translation of the Old Testament called the Septuagint. It's from a passage of scripture called the Song of Moses. It speaks to God's perfection and justice and His right to judge. In Revelation 15, John records a scene seen in heaven. God's judgment is about to be poured out. The lights are about to go out on those who disregard the sovereignty and holiness of God. As this is about to happen there is a scene in heaven of people worshiping God and singing the Song of Moses and the song of the Lamb. What can we understand from this scene in heaven?

1. The time will come where God in His perfect justice and holiness will pour out judgment on those who have rejected Him and attacked His people.
2. Those who have trusted in Christ regardless of the difficulty of their time on earth will be worshipful conquerors in heaven.
3. When the seven angels leave the sanctuary, it is just a matter of time until the anger of God is poured out upon the earth.

THINGS TO COME | THE FINAL JUDGMENTS INTRODUCED

REVELATION 15:1-8

In Paul's letter to the Romans, he tells them to live peaceably with all. Then he writes this: "Beloved, never avenge yourselves, but leave it to the wrath of God, for it is written, "Vengeance is mine, I will repay, says the Lord." (12:19, ESV) Paul was quoting Deuteronomy 32:35 from the Greek translation of the Old Testament called the Septuagint. It's from a passage of scripture called the Song of Moses. It speaks to God's perfection and justice and His right to judge. In Revelation 15, John records a scene seen in heaven. God's judgment is about to be poured out. The lights are about to go out on those who disregard the sovereignty and holiness of God. As this is about to happen there is a scene in heaven of people worshiping God and singing the Song of Moses and the song of the Lamb. What can we understand from this scene in heaven?

1. The time will come where God in His perfect justice and holiness will pour out judgment on those who have rejected Him and attacked His people.
2. Those who have trusted in Christ regardless of the difficulty of their time on earth will be worshipful conquerors in heaven.
3. When the seven angels leave the sanctuary, it is just a matter of time until the anger of God is poured out upon the earth.

THINGS TO COME | THE FINAL JUDGMENTS INTRODUCED

REVELATION 15:1-8

In Paul's letter to the Romans, he tells them to live peaceably with all. Then he writes this: "Beloved, never avenge yourselves, but leave it to the wrath of God, for it is written, "Vengeance is mine, I will repay, says the Lord." (12:19, ESV) Paul was quoting Deuteronomy 32:35 from the Greek translation of the Old Testament called the Septuagint. It's from a passage of scripture called the Song of Moses. It speaks to God's perfection and justice and His right to judge. In Revelation 15, John records a scene seen in heaven. God's judgment is about to be poured out. The lights are about to go out on those who disregard the sovereignty and holiness of God. As this is about to happen there is a scene in heaven of people worshiping God and singing the Song of Moses and the song of the Lamb. What can we understand from this scene in heaven?

1. The time will come where God in His perfect justice and holiness will pour out judgment on those who have rejected Him and attacked His people.
2. Those who have trusted in Christ regardless of the difficulty of their time on earth will be worshipful conquerors in heaven.
3. When the seven angels leave the sanctuary, it is just a matter of time until the anger of God is poured out upon the earth.

THINGS TO COME | THE FINAL JUDGMENTS INTRODUCED

REVELATION 15:1-8

In Paul's letter to the Romans, he tells them to live peaceably with all. Then he writes this: "Beloved, never avenge yourselves, but leave it to the wrath of God, for it is written, "Vengeance is mine, I will repay, says the Lord." (12:19, ESV) Paul was quoting Deuteronomy 32:35 from the Greek translation of the Old Testament called the Septuagint. It's from a passage of scripture called the Song of Moses. It speaks to God's perfection and justice and His right to judge. In Revelation 15, John records a scene seen in heaven. God's judgment is about to be poured out. The lights are about to go out on those who disregard the sovereignty and holiness of God. As this is about to happen there is a scene in heaven of people worshiping God and singing the Song of Moses and the song of the Lamb. What can we understand from this scene in heaven?

1. The time will come where God in His perfect justice and holiness will pour out judgment on those who have rejected Him and attacked His people.
2. Those who have trusted in Christ regardless of the difficulty of their time on earth will be worshipful conquerors in heaven.
3. When the seven angels leave the sanctuary, it is just a matter of time until the anger of God is poured out upon the earth.

THINGS TO COME | THE FINAL JUDGMENTS INTRODUCED

REVELATION 15:1-8

In Paul's letter to the Romans, he tells them to live peaceably with all. Then he writes this: "Beloved, never avenge yourselves, but leave it to the wrath of God, for it is written, "Vengeance is mine, I will repay, says the Lord." (12:19, ESV) Paul was quoting Deuteronomy 32:35 from the Greek translation of the Old Testament called the Septuagint. It's from a passage of scripture called the Song of Moses. It speaks to God's perfection and justice and His right to judge. In Revelation 15, John records a scene seen in heaven. God's judgment is about to be poured out. The lights are about to go out on those who disregard the sovereignty and holiness of God. As this is about to happen there is a scene in heaven of people worshiping God and singing the Song of Moses and the song of the Lamb. What can we understand from this scene in heaven?

1. The time will come where God in His perfect justice and holiness will pour out judgment on those who have rejected Him and attacked His people.
2. Those who have trusted in Christ regardless of the difficulty of their time on earth will be worshipful conquerors in heaven.
3. When the seven angels leave the sanctuary, it is just a matter of time until the anger of God is poured out upon the earth.

THINGS TO COME | THE FINAL JUDGMENTS INTRODUCED

REVELATION 15:1-8

In Paul's letter to the Romans, he tells them to live peaceably with all. Then he writes this: "Beloved, never avenge yourselves, but leave it to the wrath of God, for it is written, "Vengeance is mine, I will repay, says the Lord." (12:19, ESV) Paul was quoting Deuteronomy 32:35 from the Greek translation of the Old Testament called the Septuagint. It's from a passage of scripture called the Song of Moses. It speaks to God's perfection and justice and His right to judge. In Revelation 15, John records a scene seen in heaven. God's judgment is about to be poured out. The lights are about to go out on those who disregard the sovereignty and holiness of God. As this is about to happen there is a scene in heaven of people worshiping God and singing the Song of Moses and the song of the Lamb. What can we understand from this scene in heaven?

1. The time will come where God in His perfect justice and holiness will pour out judgment on those who have rejected Him and attacked His people.
2. Those who have trusted in Christ regardless of the difficulty of their time on earth will be worshipful conquerors in heaven.
3. When the seven angels leave the sanctuary, it is just a matter of time until the anger of God is poured out upon the earth.

THINGS TO COME | THE FINAL JUDGMENTS INTRODUCED

REVELATION 15:1-8

In Paul's letter to the Romans, he tells them to live peaceably with all. Then he writes this: "Beloved, never avenge yourselves, but leave it to the wrath of God, for it is written, "Vengeance is mine, I will repay, says the Lord." (12:19, ESV) Paul was quoting Deuteronomy 32:35 from the Greek translation of the Old Testament called the Septuagint. It's from a passage of scripture called the Song of Moses. It speaks to God's perfection and justice and His right to judge. In Revelation 15, John records a scene seen in heaven. God's judgment is about to be poured out. The lights are about to go out on those who disregard the sovereignty and holiness of God. As this is about to happen there is a scene in heaven of people worshiping God and singing the Song of Moses and the song of the Lamb. What can we understand from this scene in heaven?

1. The time will come where God in His perfect justice and holiness will pour out judgment on those who have rejected Him and attacked His people.
2. Those who have trusted in Christ regardless of the difficulty of their time on earth will be worshipful conquerors in heaven.
3. When the seven angels leave the sanctuary, it is just a matter of time until the anger of God is poured out upon the earth.

THINGS TO COME | THE FINAL JUDGMENTS INTRODUCED

REVELATION 15:1-8

In Paul's letter to the Romans, he tells them to live peaceably with all. Then he writes this: "Beloved, never avenge yourselves, but leave it to the wrath of God, for it is written, "Vengeance is mine, I will repay, says the Lord." (12:19, ESV) Paul was quoting Deuteronomy 32:35 from the Greek translation of the Old Testament called the Septuagint. It's from a passage of scripture called the Song of Moses. It speaks to God's perfection and justice and His right to judge. In Revelation 15, John records a scene seen in heaven. God's judgment is about to be poured out. The lights are about to go out on those who disregard the sovereignty and holiness of God. As this is about to happen there is a scene in heaven of people worshiping God and singing the Song of Moses and the song of the Lamb. What can we understand from this scene in heaven?

1. The time will come where God in His perfect justice and holiness will pour out judgment on those who have rejected Him and attacked His people.
2. Those who have trusted in Christ regardless of the difficulty of their time on earth will be worshipful conquerors in heaven.
3. When the seven angels leave the sanctuary, it is just a matter of time until the anger of God is poured out upon the earth.

THINGS TO COME | THE FINAL JUDGMENTS INTRODUCED

REVELATION 15:1-8

In Paul's letter to the Romans, he tells them to live peaceably with all. Then he writes this: "Beloved, never avenge yourselves, but leave it to the wrath of God, for it is written, "Vengeance is mine, I will repay, says the Lord." (12:19, ESV) Paul was quoting Deuteronomy 32:35 from the Greek translation of the Old Testament called the Septuagint. It's from a passage of scripture called the Song of Moses. It speaks to God's perfection and justice and His right to judge. In Revelation 15, John records a scene seen in heaven. God's judgment is about to be poured out. The lights are about to go out on those who disregard the sovereignty and holiness of God. As this is about to happen there is a scene in heaven of people worshiping God and singing the Song of Moses and the song of the Lamb. What can we understand from this scene in heaven?

1. The time will come where God in His perfect justice and holiness will pour out judgment on those who have rejected Him and attacked His people.
2. Those who have trusted in Christ regardless of the difficulty of their time on earth will be worshipful conquerors in heaven.
3. When the seven angels leave the sanctuary, it is just a matter of time until the anger of God is poured out upon the earth.

THINGS TO COME | THE FINAL JUDGMENTS INTRODUCED

REVELATION 15:1-8

In Paul's letter to the Romans, he tells them to live peaceably with all. Then he writes this: "Beloved, never avenge yourselves, but leave it to the wrath of God, for it is written, "Vengeance is mine, I will repay, says the Lord." (12:19, ESV) Paul was quoting Deuteronomy 32:35 from the Greek translation of the Old Testament called the Septuagint. It's from a passage of scripture called the Song of Moses. It speaks to God's perfection and justice and His right to judge. In Revelation 15, John records a scene seen in heaven. God's judgment is about to be poured out. The lights are about to go out on those who disregard the sovereignty and holiness of God. As this is about to happen there is a scene in heaven of people worshiping God and singing the Song of Moses and the song of the Lamb. What can we understand from this scene in heaven?

1. The time will come where God in His perfect justice and holiness will pour out judgment on those who have rejected Him and attacked His people.
2. Those who have trusted in Christ regardless of the difficulty of their time on earth will be worshipful conquerors in heaven.
3. When the seven angels leave the sanctuary, it is just a matter of time until the anger of God is poured out upon the earth.

THINGS TO COME | THE FINAL JUDGMENTS INTRODUCED

REVELATION 15:1-8

In Paul's letter to the Romans, he tells them to live peaceably with all. Then he writes this: "Beloved, never avenge yourselves, but leave it to the wrath of God, for it is written, "Vengeance is mine, I will repay, says the Lord." (12:19, ESV) Paul was quoting Deuteronomy 32:35 from the Greek translation of the Old Testament called the Septuagint. It's from a passage of scripture called the Song of Moses. It speaks to God's perfection and justice and His right to judge. In Revelation 15, John records a scene seen in heaven. God's judgment is about to be poured out. The lights are about to go out on those who disregard the sovereignty and holiness of God. As this is about to happen there is a scene in heaven of people worshiping God and singing the Song of Moses and the song of the Lamb. What can we understand from this scene in heaven?

1. The time will come where God in His perfect justice and holiness will pour out judgment on those who have rejected Him and attacked His people.
2. Those who have trusted in Christ regardless of the difficulty of their time on earth will be worshipful conquerors in heaven.
3. When the seven angels leave the sanctuary, it is just a matter of time until the anger of God is poured out upon the earth.

THINGS TO COME | THE FINAL JUDGMENTS INTRODUCED

REVELATION 15:1-8

In Paul's letter to the Romans, he tells them to live peaceably with all. Then he writes this: "Beloved, never avenge yourselves, but leave it to the wrath of God, for it is written, "Vengeance is mine, I will repay, says the Lord." (12:19, ESV) Paul was quoting Deuteronomy 32:35 from the Greek translation of the Old Testament called the Septuagint. It's from a passage of scripture called the Song of Moses. It speaks to God's perfection and justice and His right to judge. In Revelation 15, John records a scene seen in heaven. God's judgment is about to be poured out. The lights are about to go out on those who disregard the sovereignty and holiness of God. As this is about to happen there is a scene in heaven of people worshiping God and singing the Song of Moses and the song of the Lamb. What can we understand from this scene in heaven?

1. The time will come where God in His perfect justice and holiness will pour out judgment on those who have rejected Him and attacked His people.
2. Those who have trusted in Christ regardless of the difficulty of their time on earth will be worshipful conquerors in heaven.
3. When the seven angels leave the sanctuary, it is just a matter of time until the anger of God is poured out upon the earth.

THINGS TO COME | THE FINAL JUDGMENTS INTRODUCED

REVELATION 15:1-8

In Paul's letter to the Romans, he tells them to live peaceably with all. Then he writes this: "Beloved, never avenge yourselves, but leave it to the wrath of God, for it is written, "Vengeance is mine, I will repay, says the Lord." (12:19, ESV) Paul was quoting Deuteronomy 32:35 from the Greek translation of the Old Testament called the Septuagint. It's from a passage of scripture called the Song of Moses. It speaks to God's perfection and justice and His right to judge. In Revelation 15, John records a scene seen in heaven. God's judgment is about to be poured out. The lights are about to go out on those who disregard the sovereignty and holiness of God. As this is about to happen there is a scene in heaven of people worshiping God and singing the Song of Moses and the song of the Lamb. What can we understand from this scene in heaven?

1. The time will come where God in His perfect justice and holiness will pour out judgment on those who have rejected Him and attacked His people.
2. Those who have trusted in Christ regardless of the difficulty of their time on earth will be worshipful conquerors in heaven.
3. When the seven angels leave the sanctuary, it is just a matter of time until the anger of God is poured out upon the earth.

THINGS TO COME | THE FINAL JUDGMENTS INTRODUCED

REVELATION 15:1-8

In Paul's letter to the Romans, he tells them to live peaceably with all. Then he writes this: "Beloved, never avenge yourselves, but leave it to the wrath of God, for it is written, "Vengeance is mine, I will repay, says the Lord." (12:19, ESV) Paul was quoting Deuteronomy 32:35 from the Greek translation of the Old Testament called the Septuagint. It's from a passage of scripture called the Song of Moses. It speaks to God's perfection and justice and His right to judge. In Revelation 15, John records a scene seen in heaven. God's judgment is about to be poured out. The lights are about to go out on those who disregard the sovereignty and holiness of God. As this is about to happen there is a scene in heaven of people worshiping God and singing the Song of Moses and the song of the Lamb. What can we understand from this scene in heaven?

1. The time will come where God in His perfect justice and holiness will pour out judgment on those who have rejected Him and attacked His people.
2. Those who have trusted in Christ regardless of the difficulty of their time on earth will be worshipful conquerors in heaven.
3. When the seven angels leave the sanctuary, it is just a matter of time until the anger of God is poured out upon the earth.

THINGS TO COME | THE FINAL JUDGMENTS INTRODUCED

REVELATION 15:1-8

In Paul's letter to the Romans, he tells them to live peaceably with all. Then he writes this: "Beloved, never avenge yourselves, but leave it to the wrath of God, for it is written, "Vengeance is mine, I will repay, says the Lord." (12:19, ESV) Paul was quoting Deuteronomy 32:35 from the Greek translation of the Old Testament called the Septuagint. It's from a passage of scripture called the Song of Moses. It speaks to God's perfection and justice and His right to judge. In Revelation 15, John records a scene seen in heaven. God's judgment is about to be poured out. The lights are about to go out on those who disregard the sovereignty and holiness of God. As this is about to happen there is a scene in heaven of people worshiping God and singing the Song of Moses and the song of the Lamb. What can we understand from this scene in heaven?

1. The time will come where God in His perfect justice and holiness will pour out judgment on those who have rejected Him and attacked His people.
2. Those who have trusted in Christ regardless of the difficulty of their time on earth will be worshipful conquerors in heaven.
3. When the seven angels leave the sanctuary, it is just a matter of time until the anger of God is poured out upon the earth.

THINGS TO COME | THE FINAL JUDGMENTS INTRODUCED

REVELATION 15:1-8

In Paul's letter to the Romans, he tells them to live peaceably with all. Then he writes this: "Beloved, never avenge yourselves, but leave it to the wrath of God, for it is written, "Vengeance is mine, I will repay, says the Lord." (12:19, ESV) Paul was quoting Deuteronomy 32:35 from the Greek translation of the Old Testament called the Septuagint. It's from a passage of scripture called the Song of Moses. It speaks to God's perfection and justice and His right to judge. In Revelation 15, John records a scene seen in heaven. God's judgment is about to be poured out. The lights are about to go out on those who disregard the sovereignty and holiness of God. As this is about to happen there is a scene in heaven of people worshiping God and singing the Song of Moses and the song of the Lamb. What can we understand from this scene in heaven?

1. The time will come where God in His perfect justice and holiness will pour out judgment on those who have rejected Him and attacked His people.
2. Those who have trusted in Christ regardless of the difficulty of their time on earth will be worshipful conquerors in heaven.
3. When the seven angels leave the sanctuary, it is just a matter of time until the anger of God is poured out upon the earth.

THINGS TO COME | THE FINAL JUDGMENTS INTRODUCED

REVELATION 15:1-8

In Paul's letter to the Romans, he tells them to live peaceably with all. Then he writes this: "Beloved, never avenge yourselves, but leave it to the wrath of God, for it is written, "Vengeance is mine, I will repay, says the Lord." (12:19, ESV) Paul was quoting Deuteronomy 32:35 from the Greek translation of the Old Testament called the Septuagint. It's from a passage of scripture called the Song of Moses. It speaks to God's perfection and justice and His right to judge. In Revelation 15, John records a scene seen in heaven. God's judgment is about to be poured out. The lights are about to go out on those who disregard the sovereignty and holiness of God. As this is about to happen there is a scene in heaven of people worshiping God and singing the Song of Moses and the song of the Lamb. What can we understand from this scene in heaven?

1. The time will come where God in His perfect justice and holiness will pour out judgment on those who have rejected Him and attacked His people.
2. Those who have trusted in Christ regardless of the difficulty of their time on earth will be worshipful conquerors in heaven.
3. When the seven angels leave the sanctuary, it is just a matter of time until the anger of God is poured out upon the earth.

THINGS TO COME | THE FINAL JUDGMENTS INTRODUCED

REVELATION 15:1-8

In Paul's letter to the Romans, he tells them to live peaceably with all. Then he writes this: "Beloved, never avenge yourselves, but leave it to the wrath of God, for it is written, "Vengeance is mine, I will repay, says the Lord." (12:19, ESV) Paul was quoting Deuteronomy 32:35 from the Greek translation of the Old Testament called the Septuagint. It's from a passage of scripture called the Song of Moses. It speaks to God's perfection and justice and His right to judge. In Revelation 15, John records a scene seen in heaven. God's judgment is about to be poured out. The lights are about to go out on those who disregard the sovereignty and holiness of God. As this is about to happen there is a scene in heaven of people worshiping God and singing the Song of Moses and the song of the Lamb. What can we understand from this scene in heaven?

1. The time will come where God in His perfect justice and holiness will pour out judgment on those who have rejected Him and attacked His people.
2. Those who have trusted in Christ regardless of the difficulty of their time on earth will be worshipful conquerors in heaven.
3. When the seven angels leave the sanctuary, it is just a matter of time until the anger of God is poured out upon the earth.

THINGS TO COME | THE FINAL JUDGMENTS INTRODUCED

REVELATION 15:1-8

In Paul's letter to the Romans, he tells them to live peaceably with all. Then he writes this: "Beloved, never avenge yourselves, but leave it to the wrath of God, for it is written, "Vengeance is mine, I will repay, says the Lord." (12:19, ESV) Paul was quoting Deuteronomy 32:35 from the Greek translation of the Old Testament called the Septuagint. It's from a passage of scripture called the Song of Moses. It speaks to God's perfection and justice and His right to judge. In Revelation 15, John records a scene seen in heaven. God's judgment is about to be poured out. The lights are about to go out on those who disregard the sovereignty and holiness of God. As this is about to happen there is a scene in heaven of people worshiping God and singing the Song of Moses and the song of the Lamb. What can we understand from this scene in heaven?

1. The time will come where God in His perfect justice and holiness will pour out judgment on those who have rejected Him and attacked His people.
2. Those who have trusted in Christ regardless of the difficulty of their time on earth will be worshipful conquerors in heaven.
3. When the seven angels leave the sanctuary, it is just a matter of time until the anger of God is poured out upon the earth.

THINGS TO COME | THE FINAL JUDGMENTS INTRODUCED

REVELATION 15:1-8

In Paul's letter to the Romans, he tells them to live peaceably with all. Then he writes this: "Beloved, never avenge yourselves, but leave it to the wrath of God, for it is written, "Vengeance is mine, I will repay, says the Lord." (12:19, ESV) Paul was quoting Deuteronomy 32:35 from the Greek translation of the Old Testament called the Septuagint. It's from a passage of scripture called the Song of Moses. It speaks to God's perfection and justice and His right to judge. In Revelation 15, John records a scene seen in heaven. God's judgment is about to be poured out. The lights are about to go out on those who disregard the sovereignty and holiness of God. As this is about to happen there is a scene in heaven of people worshiping God and singing the Song of Moses and the song of the Lamb. What can we understand from this scene in heaven?

1. The time will come where God in His perfect justice and holiness will pour out judgment on those who have rejected Him and attacked His people.
2. Those who have trusted in Christ regardless of the difficulty of their time on earth will be worshipful conquerors in heaven.
3. When the seven angels leave the sanctuary, it is just a matter of time until the anger of God is poured out upon the earth.

THINGS TO COME | THE FINAL JUDGMENTS INTRODUCED

REVELATION 15:1-8

In Paul's letter to the Romans, he tells them to live peaceably with all. Then he writes this: "Beloved, never avenge yourselves, but leave it to the wrath of God, for it is written, "Vengeance is mine, I will repay, says the Lord." (12:19, ESV) Paul was quoting Deuteronomy 32:35 from the Greek translation of the Old Testament called the Septuagint. It's from a passage of scripture called the Song of Moses. It speaks to God's perfection and justice and His right to judge. In Revelation 15, John records a scene seen in heaven. God's judgment is about to be poured out. The lights are about to go out on those who disregard the sovereignty and holiness of God. As this is about to happen there is a scene in heaven of people worshiping God and singing the Song of Moses and the song of the Lamb. What can we understand from this scene in heaven?

1. The time will come where God in His perfect justice and holiness will pour out judgment on those who have rejected Him and attacked His people.
2. Those who have trusted in Christ regardless of the difficulty of their time on earth will be worshipful conquerors in heaven.
3. When the seven angels leave the sanctuary, it is just a matter of time until the anger of God is poured out upon the earth.

THINGS TO COME | THE FINAL JUDGMENTS INTRODUCED

REVELATION 15:1-8

In Paul's letter to the Romans, he tells them to live peaceably with all. Then he writes this: "Beloved, never avenge yourselves, but leave it to the wrath of God, for it is written, "Vengeance is mine, I will repay, says the Lord." (12:19, ESV) Paul was quoting Deuteronomy 32:35 from the Greek translation of the Old Testament called the Septuagint. It's from a passage of scripture called the Song of Moses. It speaks to God's perfection and justice and His right to judge. In Revelation 15, John records a scene seen in heaven. God's judgment is about to be poured out. The lights are about to go out on those who disregard the sovereignty and holiness of God. As this is about to happen there is a scene in heaven of people worshiping God and singing the Song of Moses and the song of the Lamb. What can we understand from this scene in heaven?

1. The time will come where God in His perfect justice and holiness will pour out judgment on those who have rejected Him and attacked His people.
2. Those who have trusted in Christ regardless of the difficulty of their time on earth will be worshipful conquerors in heaven.
3. When the seven angels leave the sanctuary, it is just a matter of time until the anger of God is poured out upon the earth.

THINGS TO COME | THE FINAL JUDGMENTS INTRODUCED

REVELATION 15:1-8

In Paul's letter to the Romans, he tells them to live peaceably with all. Then he writes this: "Beloved, never avenge yourselves, but leave it to the wrath of God, for it is written, "Vengeance is mine, I will repay, says the Lord." (12:19, ESV) Paul was quoting Deuteronomy 32:35 from the Greek translation of the Old Testament called the Septuagint. It's from a passage of scripture called the Song of Moses. It speaks to God's perfection and justice and His right to judge. In Revelation 15, John records a scene seen in heaven. God's judgment is about to be poured out. The lights are about to go out on those who disregard the sovereignty and holiness of God. As this is about to happen there is a scene in heaven of people worshiping God and singing the Song of Moses and the song of the Lamb. What can we understand from this scene in heaven?

1. The time will come where God in His perfect justice and holiness will pour out judgment on those who have rejected Him and attacked His people.
2. Those who have trusted in Christ regardless of the difficulty of their time on earth will be worshipful conquerors in heaven.
3. When the seven angels leave the sanctuary, it is just a matter of time until the anger of God is poured out upon the earth.

THINGS TO COME | THE FINAL JUDGMENTS INTRODUCED

REVELATION 15:1-8

In Paul's letter to the Romans, he tells them to live peaceably with all. Then he writes this: "Beloved, never avenge yourselves, but leave it to the wrath of God, for it is written, "Vengeance is mine, I will repay, says the Lord." (12:19, ESV) Paul was quoting Deuteronomy 32:35 from the Greek translation of the Old Testament called the Septuagint. It's from a passage of scripture called the Song of Moses. It speaks to God's perfection and justice and His right to judge. In Revelation 15, John records a scene seen in heaven. God's judgment is about to be poured out. The lights are about to go out on those who disregard the sovereignty and holiness of God. As this is about to happen there is a scene in heaven of people worshiping God and singing the Song of Moses and the song of the Lamb. What can we understand from this scene in heaven?

1. The time will come where God in His perfect justice and holiness will pour out judgment on those who have rejected Him and attacked His people.
2. Those who have trusted in Christ regardless of the difficulty of their time on earth will be worshipful conquerors in heaven.
3. When the seven angels leave the sanctuary, it is just a matter of time until the anger of God is poured out upon the earth.

THINGS TO COME | THE FINAL JUDGMENTS INTRODUCED

REVELATION 15:1-8

In Paul's letter to the Romans, he tells them to live peaceably with all. Then he writes this: "Beloved, never avenge yourselves, but leave it to the wrath of God, for it is written, "Vengeance is mine, I will repay, says the Lord." (12:19, ESV) Paul was quoting Deuteronomy 32:35 from the Greek translation of the Old Testament called the Septuagint. It's from a passage of scripture called the Song of Moses. It speaks to God's perfection and justice and His right to judge. In Revelation 15, John records a scene seen in heaven. God's judgment is about to be poured out. The lights are about to go out on those who disregard the sovereignty and holiness of God. As this is about to happen there is a scene in heaven of people worshiping God and singing the Song of Moses and the song of the Lamb. What can we understand from this scene in heaven?

1. The time will come where God in His perfect justice and holiness will pour out judgment on those who have rejected Him and attacked His people.
2. Those who have trusted in Christ regardless of the difficulty of their time on earth will be worshipful conquerors in heaven.
3. When the seven angels leave the sanctuary, it is just a matter of time until the anger of God is poured out upon the earth.